Response to Questions

Question #17: Is this a prime (direct) government contract? If yes, would GTA be the prime contractor and the bidder be the sub-contractor?

Response: No, the bidder will not be a direct government contract. The Bureau of Statistics and Plans is the prime recipient of the grant. GTA is the subrecipient to the grant. The bidder will serve as the contractor.

As a recipient of federal funds, the contractor must abide by all applicable federal, state, and local regulations.
